Academic Leadership Newsletter

This is the first installment of a new, regular newsletter for Academic Leaders. The information below has been curated specifically for those in leadership roles related to academic programs or units.

The intention for this newsletter is to keep you informed about upcoming academic leadership meetings or development opportunities, provide you support and information about issues being raised across campus, and remind you of upcoming deadlines or timely resources.

MESSAGES TO AMPLIFY

Intervening for Inclusion Workshop: Is your department hiring faculty this year? The Office of the Provost encourages search committee members to attend Intervening for Inclusion on October 13. This workshop, by UO's Rehearsal for Life, explores innovative and interactive ways to effectively approach scenarios that may come up during the search process. This workshop will be offered again in Winter term.

Yom Kippur: Members of our community will be observing the Yom Kippur holiday this Tuesday evening through Wednesday evening. Please help remind colleagues that "upon request, the university will make reasonable accommodations for students who are unable to attend a class due to a religious observance". UO's Religious Observances form is available for students. Thank you for supporting students this way.

Course Attendance and Engagement Policy: Fielding questions about the Senate's new policy? Implementation FAQs and sample policies are available. The Senate and its committees continue to discuss the implications of the policy, how faculty are enacting it in spirit and practice, and ways to refine it over time. The Senate and TEP will host a forum on this policy on November 4.

FINAL YEAR! Core Education Reapproval: We will be sending out reminders to unit heads with the list of outstanding courses to be reviewed. The deadline for submission is June 15, 2023. Courses not reviewed this round will lose their Core Education status. We are available to workshop with units as they work on their courses. Please contact Ron Bramhall or Lee Rumbarger to schedule.

TODAY! Report Course Material: October 3 is the deadline for reporting course materials for Winter 2023 term. All faculty teaching a for-credit course in Winter 2023 need to report through the Duck Store Verba Collect platform by October 3. This includes courses that have no materials or are using only web or Canvas materials.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT & WORKSHOPS

Thanks to all who joined us at the Summit for Academic Leaders on September 16 – slides and links to content found on the Summit page in the Unit Heads Community Canvas site. Email Sierra Dawson for access.

TOMORROW! Peer Leadership Coaching Program: October 4 is your last chance to apply to be paired with a coach.

ALL UNIT HEADS! Fall Term Timely Updates: Mandatory meeting on October 26 to ensure all unit heads are informed of the campus wide changes or other timely information. Senior leadership from the office of the provost and other campus partners will be in attendance for this interactive discussion. Register through MyTrack.

NEW UNIT HEADS! Monthly Leadership Development Series: Our (first!) monthly leadership development meeting for new unit heads will be on October 5. These meetings will take place on the first Wednesday of each month from 9:00 to 10:30am. The first meeting will focus on identifying core values, developing a personal “why” statement, and integrating these ideas into your current leadership role. All academic leaders are welcome. Register through MyTrack.

Learning Objectives Workshop for Units: This academic year, each program will update or confirm its student learning outcomes. This workshop on October 28 will help participants identify meaningful and useful program-level student learning outcomes that will serve as the basis for annual assessment reporting. Register through MyTrack.
