OFFICE OF THE PROVOST

Faculty Success Newsletter

The Office of the Provost is proud to recognize faculty for their achievements. Through this newsletter and other channels, we will make sure you're aware of when, how, and who should apply or be nominated. Learn more about awards and opportunities, such as:

NEW! Distinguished Teaching Professorships: The Office of the Provost invites career faculty with the rank of Senior Instructor II and Senior Lecturer II to apply for this new program that recognizes the extraordinary contributions of teaching career faculty and provides opportunities to amplify their expertise through leadership and teaching projects. Applications are due March 1, 2023.

The Williams Fund: Williams Fellows are accomplished, innovative teachers who collaborate outside the boundaries of their courses. Nominate a colleague or two faculty collaborators who do transformative work together for a fellowship to acknowledge and support their ongoing work. Beginning this year, nominees participate in the process. Nominate by March 7.

The Williams Fund: Williams Instructional Grants can fund your innovative teaching idea. From transforming introductory courses to launching community-engaged and undergraduate research projects connected to classes, the Williams Fund supports faculty as you bring your expertise to life. Submit a proposal by March 22.

The Williams Council will host its annual Williams Showcase to help faculty prepare instructional proposals Friday, February 17, 1:00 to 2:00pm via Zoom.

Teaching, Research, and Innovation Sustainability Awards: Faculty are invited to nominate yourself or another faculty member who shows excellence in sustainability throughout the UO—from teaching and research to student leadership, student programming, and campus operations and administration, and more. Nominate by February 27.
