Goal

Provide an overview of the promotion process for instructional and research career non-tenure track faculty.
Objectives

Participants will be able to...

a) Define career faculty promotion, and the policies that dictate the process.

b) Describe the timeline for the promotion process, and what happens at each step.

c) Avoid confusion regarding often misunderstood components of the promotion process.
Quick introductions
What is promotion?

Eligibility includes 6 years of service at minimum of .3 FTE average (maximum of 3 terms per AY for 9-mo contract, 4 terms per AY for 12-mo contract).

Promotion is elective (except for Librarians). Employment can continue at current rank.

Promotion requires excellence, not purely years of service.

Step 2 to Step 3 Examples:
- Senior Instructor I to Senior Instructor II
- Senior Research Assistant I to Senior Research Assistant II
- Associate Librarian to Senior Librarian
What is the overall timeline for promotion?

What is the overall timeline for promotion?

Promotion - Career NTTF

Career NTTF review and promotion is covered by Article 19 of the United Academics Collective Bargaining Agreement (UA CBA). Departmental/unit level criteria documents are available under Department and Unit Policies.

Promotion cases for instructional career NTTF are overseen by the Office of the Provost. Promotion cases for research career NTTF are overseen by the Office of Research and Innovation. The promotion decisions for all career NTTF are made by the provost.

CBA Article 19. Non-Tenure Track Faculty Review and Promotion

Career non-tenure track faculty will be eligible for promotion after accumulating six years of employment as a faculty member at or above .3 average FTE per year. Career non-tenure track instructors may accrue FTE during fall, winter, and spring terms, however, not during summer term. The six years of employment do not have to be consecutive.

Career non-tenure track faculty who will have completed five years of employment as a faculty member at or above .3 average FTE per year, and who have an expected appointment of .3 average FTE or greater for the sixth year, should initiate the promotion process by June 15 of the fifth year if a promotion review in the sixth year is desired.

Career non-tenure track faculty who have already completed more than five years of employment as a faculty member at or above .3 average FTE per year may initiate the promotion process by June 15 of any year.

Directions:
1. The candidate works with the unit manager to complete this form.
2. The unit manager completes the table below to show contracted FTE for each term. Nothing over 1.0 FTE per term will count towards the average FTE (e.g., for an FTE of 1.1, enter only 1.0). The FTE average for each year must be at least .3 in order for it to count towards eligibility. Summer is not included in this calculation.
3. The unit manager submits the form to the unit head with a notice of intent to be considered for promotion review.
4. The unit head provides the e-signature and returns it to the unit manager.
5. The unit manager emails the completed form to HRops@uoregon.edu for verification of FTE.
6. HR Ops returns the verified form (with HR personnel initials and date) to the unit manager for inclusion in the promotion dossier.

HUMAN PHYSIOLOGY NTTF REVIEW AND PROMOTION POLICIES

HPHY: December 15, 2014
HS: 2-25-15
HPHY: May 5, 2015

This policy applies to all represented faculty and is intended to comply with all provisions of Article 19 of the CBA. To the extent there are any discrepancies or inconsistencies, CBA Article 19 controls for represented faculty. This policy also applies to all unrepresented faculty, unless a university-wide policy exists that contradicts the terms of this policy.

If review or promotion procedures change during the course of a faculty member’s employment, they may elect between current criteria and those in effect during the six years prior to the initiation of a given review or promotion process.

CAREER NTTF CONTRACT REVIEWS

1. Career NTTF will be reviewed in each contract period for consideration for renewal, or once every three academic years, whichever is sooner. If a career NTTF member has multiple contracts in a year, only review per fiscal academic year is required. The review will consider the faculty member’s performance since the last review.

2. If a career NTTF member has a promotion review, they do not need to also have a contract renewal review during the same period. However the contract renewal decision must be made independently of the promotion decision.

3. For contract renewal reviews, the faculty member may choose to submit a curriculum vitae and a personal statement containing information relevant to their performance of assigned duties and responsibilities.

4. The following elements will be considered in evaluating teaching:
Dossier

The dossier is to be submitted digitally as a single PDF with all elements included. Dossiers not submitted as a single PDF will be returned for reformatting. Units are encouraged to use the digital dossier template for compiling the dossier. The eligibility form must be confirmed by HR and placed in the dossier before materials are submitted via OneDrive. Please see instructions on the eligibility form.

Supplementary Materials

Supplemental materials are to be submitted digitally as possible. It is recommended that units use the supplementary file template for submitting materials. If files are not readily available in digital format, contact OtP@uoregon.edu for alternative arrangements.

Submitting the file

Promotion files are to be submitted by the dean’s office to the Office of the Provost using Microsoft OneDrive. All UO employees have access to OneDrive. If you are unfamiliar with OneDrive or have questions about its use, please contact your IT staff.

Upload the candidate’s dossier and supplementary file using following steps:

☐ Teaching Evaluations – Written/Signed Student Comments
☐ Curricula Vitae for External Reviewers

☐ Scholarship Portfolio
☐ Teaching Portfolio
☐ Service Portfolio
☐ Equity and Inclusion Portfolio

Frequently asked Questions:

If the promotion is unsuccessful, can the faculty member reapply the following year?

No. See CBA Article 19, Section 27: “NTTF bargaining unit members who are denied promotion may reapply for promotion after having been employed by the university for an additional three years at an average of .3 FTE or greater….”

Is the promotion an “up or out” process for NTTF?

Only for Librarians; not for Instructional or Research NTTF.
Frequently asked Questions:

If a career faculty in my Department has been meeting minimum expectations, should they expect a successful promotion?

Promotion is for demonstrated excellence as outlined in unit policy.

When is the last moment that an application for promotion can be withdrawn?

Any time prior to the Provost’s decision.
I would like to reclassify a career faculty in my unit who is up for promotion from Instructor to Lecturer. Can I do that as part of the promotion process?

No. Reclassification and promotion are separate processes and have different criteria.

Is my unit required to have a unit wide vote?

Only if it is part of your unit policy. Each unit should have a committee vote, except in the case of Research Assistant or Research Associate classifications.
A faculty member in their fourth year would like to apply a year of previous service at another institution towards promotion eligibility, but this was not negotiated at the time of hire. Is this appropriate?

No. This is decided at the time of hire (CBA Article 19 section 8).

If I have an extremely meritorious career faculty in my department, can I encourage them to go up early?

Yes. Accelerated review can occur with Provost approval (CBA article 19 section 7).
Problems to Avoid

For example, files have been sent back if:

If there was no committee vote recorded.

If there was no substantive evaluation written up by committee.

If the heads letter had not independently evaluated the candidate, while also summarizing the committee recommendation & the outcome of committee vote.
