

CAS Summer Session Policy
DEPARTMENT OF ROMANCE LANGUAGES

I. Preamble

Summer session is an opportunity to provide courses for students outside of the standard academic year. The University and the College determine how net revenues from the summer session instruction are allocated. In collaboration with the Dean's office, departments and programs coordinate opportunities for faculty to teach courses during summer session.

Since departments are expected, at minimum, to break even, they should think carefully about the cost of resources they invest in summer courses relative to the anticipated enrollments. If the tuition income does not cover the cost of offering summer courses, reimbursement will be due to the College.

This policy concerns summer session appointments for tenure-related, non-tenure-track, and pro tem faculty only; summer appointments for graduate students are governed by the GTFF collective bargaining agreement.

II. Determination of Course Offerings

Prior to scheduling courses for summer session, and during the settle-up period after summer term is over, the Dean's office will provide departments and programs with guidance on summer session course planning, including budgetary guidance on how net revenues will be allocated to departments and programs and schedules for determining enrollment needed to break even for various levels of instructor compensation.

The summer schedule is built by the Dept. Head, based on 1) previous summer enrollments and projections for the upcoming summer and 2) undergraduate program needs (e.g. courses not offered during the regular year).

Summer program priorities are:

- First and second year language classes
- 3rd-year survey of literature and introductory linguistics classes (for majors/minors)
- Advanced courses that meet the needs of undergraduate majors
- Special projects or offerings designed to appeal to a specific group of potential students, who may be more likely to take a course during the summer.

III. Assignment of Instructors to Courses

Summer instructional contracts are distinct and separate from nine-month, academic-year contracts. An offer of a summer session appointment will be made at least five weeks prior to the beginning of the appointment, whenever feasible. Except as described in Article 18, Section 5 of the 2015-18 United Academics CBA, a bargaining unit faculty member on an academic-year appointment is not required to accept a summer session appointment, and will not be subject to discrimination and/or retaliation for declining a summer session appointment.

To facilitate an equitable and transparent assignment of summer teaching opportunities, the Department of Romance Languages will reserve 50% of summer teaching appointments in first- and second-year language courses for GEs. Summer appointments of qualified GEs to teach undergraduate survey courses (e.g. SPAN 322, SPAN 344, etc.) will be taken into account in distributing summer teaching assignments, proportionately reducing GE appointments in first- and second-year language courses.

SELECTION PROCESS: A selection committee comprised of both TTF and NTTF (drawn from the department's two elected advisory committees and from the language supervisors) will review applications and make recommendations to the department head.

CONSIDERATIONS FOR SELECTION (Graduate Employee appointments):

- successful prior teaching experience
- acceptable progress in degree program
- financial need as detailed in the applicant's statement
- Ph.D. vs. MA status
- likely contribution of supervised summer teaching to professional development

CONSIDERATIONS FOR SELECTION (NTTF appointments):

- superior student evaluations and/or peer observations; within this highly qualified group, those who did not receive teaching appointments the previous summer will have first priority.
- service to department or evidence of professional development activity (most recent 12 months)

IV. Professional Responsibilities of Instructor During Summer Session

Professional responsibilities of faculty teaching summer session courses are identical to those connected with teaching a course during the academic year. This includes holding weekly office hours, answering standard advising questions that arise for students, and standard duties associated with administering the course that arise even before or after the summer session term (e.g., finalizing grades of “incomplete”). The following principles will determine what constitutes a full-time workload during the summer term:

CAS Summer Session Policy
DEPARTMENT OF ROMANCE LANGUAGES

- A. The FTE assigned a course must be the same no matter who teaches the course.
- B. A standard 4-credit academic course taught in a 4-week term constitutes .9 FTE for that term. This equates to .3 FTE prorated across the entire 12-week summer session.
- C. 3- and 5-credit courses are counted the same as 4-credit courses for the purposes of calculating faculty FTE
- D. FTE for courses carrying other amounts of credit is prorated on a 4-credit standard

Any exception to these principles must be appropriately documented and approved through prior consultation with CAS.

The combination of summer research and instructional appointments for the same faculty member must not exceed 1.0 FTE across all parts of summer session. See the addendum for a table showing FTE for various summer session appointments and cases where assignments greater than 1.0 FTE within a given term are likely to be approved by CAS.

V. Compensation

Summer-session base salaries may differ from academic-year base salaries, except in cases of required summer-session assignments described in Article 18, Section 5 of the 2015-18 United Academics CBA.

Summer base salaries will be set corresponding to differences in faculty classification, rank, and/or experience Base salaries may not vary from individual to individual within a given faculty category. Compensation must be FTE based. The base salary should be set at a level that incentivizes qualified faculty to accept summer session assignments but that also generates net revenue.

Base salaries for teaching during the summer session must be approved by the Dean's office and cannot exceed the instructor's academic-year salary, except in extraordinary circumstances and with approval from the dean.

VI. Course Cancellation

Summer session is similar to other self-support programs where each course has a clear cost and tuition revenue connected to it. As such, summer session courses that do not have sufficient enrollment prior to the scheduled start of the course will be cancelled.

CAS Summer Session Policy
DEPARTMENT OF ROMANCE LANGUAGES

This arrangement will be clearly stated to the faculty member in the appointment notice for this voluntary assignment. There are times when a summer session course may be offered, based on pedagogical or other academic principles, even when it generates a net financial loss. For example, a key methodological course to train incoming graduate students might fall into this category.

In the event that a course is cancelled, the department or unit will attempt to appoint the bargaining unit faculty member to a new assignment.

All summer contracts for NTTF and TTF will be issued conditionally. If a course is under-enrolled before the beginning of summer session, RL reserves the right to cancel the course and the NTTF or TTF contract.

VII. Research Appointments During the Summer

To comply with federal requirements, when a nine-month faculty member is funded at 1.0 FTE on a research contract during the summer, the faculty member must work exclusively on that project. Faculty members should not accept 1.0 FTE summer research appointments for any period of time when they will not be working on the project. To comply with federal regulations, non-instructional summer pay funded by a sponsored project is based on a faculty member's academic-year base salary. Professional responsibilities are specified by the principal investigator (or designee) and/or by the agreement with the granting agency.

ADDENDUM

I. FTE Assignment by Type of Summer Course

Summer term FTE should be based on what the course FTE would be during an academic year. In CAS, a course is typically .1 FTE annually or .3FTE during a term. 3- and 5-credit courses are counted the same as 4-credit courses for the purposes of calculating faculty FTE. FTE for courses carrying other amounts of credit is prorated on a 4-credit standard. Course credit hours and their associated 12-week contract FTE are as follows:

Course Credit Hours	12-week Contract FTE
1	.075
2	.15
3, 4 or 5	.30
8	.60
12	.90

Web-based course FTE is normally the same as for conventional non-online courses.

Other situations require prior consultation with CAS to set FTE.

II. Examples of Summer Term Overload Assignments

Examples of summer-term overload assignments (> 1.0 FTE within a summer term) that are currently likely to be approved by CAS:

- A. One 3, 4 or 5-credit course in fewer than 4 weeks, assuming that the shorter interval does not necessitate an unrealistic level of student engagement.

- B. Two 3-, 4-, or 5-credit courses during one of the three 4-week summer terms, but typically not in two such terms.
