

PODS NTTF REVIEW AND PROMOTION POLICY

PURPOSE

This policy outlines the Department's policies and procedures for conducting review and promotion assessments for Non-Tenure Track Faculty. This policy applies to all represented faculty and is intended to comply with all provisions of Article 19 of the CBA. To the extent there are any discrepancies or inconsistencies, CBA Article 19 controls for represented faculty. This policy also applies to all unrepresented faculty, unless a university-wide policy exists that contradicts the terms of this policy.

1. Inclusion and Limitations

Career NTTF are eligible for regular reviews associated with contract renewal and promotion reviews per the terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA). The following process and procedures are utilized by the department for these reviews. It is noted that although a review for promotion may be substituted for a review for contract renewal, the decision on whether or not to renew a contract must be made independently from the promotion review itself. If review or promotion procedures change during the course of a faculty member's employment, they may elect between current criteria and those in effect during the six years prior to the initiation of a given review or promotion process.

Pro Tem (adjunct) faculty are evaluated by way of end-of-term student course evaluations. While not required, adjunct faculty may request peer evaluation of teaching. There are no promotion opportunities for those appointed as adjunct NTTF.

2. Evaluation Criteria

- 2.1. Review – Evaluation Criteria will mirror the department's Merit Policy, without modification. Career NTTF must be reviewed in each contract period prior to consideration for renewal or once every three academic or fiscal years of employment, whichever is sooner. If a career NTTF member has multiple contracts in a year, only one review per fiscal academic year is required. Review will consider performance since last review. Career NTTF will be evaluated on the quality of their teaching and other professional responsibilities in proportion to the FTE in their job descriptions.
- 2.2. Promotion – Evaluation Criteria will mirror the department's Merit Policy with the following modifications:
 - 2.2.1. Review Period – The candidate will be reviewed for the period of time over which the candidate established themselves as eligible for promotion (see Article 19, Sec. 5).
 - 2.2.2. Consideration of Individual Professional Responsibilities and Contributions – A candidate must be considered for merit criteria in each dimension of Teaching; Research, Scholarship, and Creative Practice; and Service provided in the candidate's job description.

Additionally, a candidate may opt to include consideration of merit criteria in any dimension of Teaching; Research, Scholarship, and Creative Practice; and Service even if the candidate is not normally assigned duties in those designated areas. In such cases, the candidate will submit a written request to the Associate Dean detailing the weights they would like used for the promotion evaluation. The Associate Dean may either accept or modify the weights of the dimensions, and will provide the candidate with a final proposal for alternative criteria weights. The Associate Dean may not depart unreasonably from the contractual weights or unreasonably emphasize activities that contribute little to the achievement of University duties. The candidate must notify the Associate Dean in writing whether they choose to be evaluated per the Associate Dean's alternative criteria weights or the weights provided in the candidate's job description. The criteria weights may not be altered by either the candidate or evaluators once this written determination is made.

2.2.3. Standards of Performance for Promotion

Promotions are granted on the basis of whether or not in the academic and professional judgment of the evaluators, the candidate has performed to a standard where they meet the criteria to qualify for a rating of either "Exceeds Expectations" or "Highest Expectations" under the merit criteria.

3. Review

The review process will include an opportunity for the Career NTTF to discuss their efforts & performance with a supervisor at least once during each contract period.

- 3.1. Frequency – Reviews are conducted in each contract period, or every three years, whichever is sooner.
- 3.2. Timing – In years where a merit assessment is performed, that merit assessment will serve as the review for all NTTF. If a merit assessment is not required, the Associate Dean will follow the merit process to perform a similar assessment not connected to a merit increase.
- 3.3. Criteria – The reviews will be based off of the department's Merit Policy. For instructional Career NTTF, student course evaluations will be offered for all courses with five or more students. The evaluation of teaching will include a review of evaluations for each course taught and one peer review of teaching per contract period. Notice of a peer review will be given at least 1-week before a peer review is conducted. To the extent applicable, the evaluation of scholarship, research, and creative activity will include an assessment of work quality, impact on the field nationally and internationally, and overall contribution to the discipline or program. In evaluating the performance of required professional development activities, the review will consider the availability of professional development funds, opportunities for professional development, and the Career NTTF faculty member's efforts to secure funding. Career NTTF will be evaluated on the quality of their teaching and other professional responsibilities in proportion to the FTE in their job descriptions.
- 3.4. Materials – Review materials will be submitted in accordance with the department's Merit Policy. As part of each contract review, Career NTTF will have an opportunity to submit a personal statement containing information relevant to their performance of assigned duties and responsibilities.

3.5. Documentation & Notification – Documentation and notification will be provided accordance with the department’s Merit Policy.
